Challan scam unearthed at Srirampura Town Panchayat

Govt. money transferred to personal bank accounts; 5 staff in dock

Mysuru, June 6 (RK&BCT)- A major scam has been uncovered at the Srirampura Town Panchayat, where Government money has been siphoned off and transferred to the personal bank accounts of four to five employees. The misappropriation was detected by a senior officer in charge of the Town Panchayat.

An investigation team has been constituted to probe the misuse of public funds over several months. Action will be taken once the report is submitted to the State Government. This is the first instance of public money swindling coming to light in Mysuru after many Gram Panchayats around the city were upgraded to Town Panchayats and City Municipal Councils in Nov. 2020 due to Mysuru's growth.

According to sources, the misappropriation detected, amounting to lakhs of rupees, is just the tip of the iceberg and could potentially run into crores of rupees once a detailed examination of records and receipts is conducted.

Sources in the Deputy Commissioner's Office and Srirampura Town Panchayat office told Star of Mysore that the scam came to light a fortnight ago during a routine inspection conducted by Project Director B. Shubha of the District Urban Development Cell (DUDC) who is in charge of all Urban Local Bodies.

Complaints of misappropriation

Based on complaints of irregularities in Khata issuance, transfers and tax collection receipts, Shubha visited the Town Panchayat Office a fortnight ago and conducted a review.

It was discovered that a female employee of the Srirampura Town Panchayat, in collusion with a bill collector, his assistant and two other employees, had misappropriated funds in over 150 cases.

Money collected in the form of taxes and receipts was transferred into their personal bank accounts instead of being deposited in the designated Town Panchayat bank account. Duplicate and unauthorised challans were created to collect money in the form of property taxes and fees for Khata issuance and transfers in over 150 files.

The DUDC Project Director then instructed Suresh, the Town Panchayat Chief Officer, to submit a report after checking the cash ledgers and receipts and matching them with the money deposited in the bank.

Investigation team constituted

Based on the Chief Officer's report, which highlighted the misappropriation of lakhs of rupees, Officer Shubha brought the issue to the attention of Mysuru Deputy Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra. An investigation team was then formed under Bannur Revenue Officer Basavaraju and Srirampura Town Panchayat First Division Assistant (FDA) Raghunandan.

According to sources, the investigation revealed that the official Bill Collector had entrusted the task of collecting Panchayat bills and taxes to his assistant because he was "busy." When the assistant collected the bills, duplicate and unauthorised challans were issued in collusion with other officers involved in the scam.

Unauthorised challans

As per norms, a challan leaf must have three sections: one section is given to the taxpayer after the money is collected, another is retained by the bank, and the last section is retained by the Panchayat. In this case, the proper system was not followed. The collected money was deposited into the personal bank accounts of four to five employees after unauthorised challans were issued to the taxpayers.

It also has come to light that certain grants sanctioned to the Town Panchayat by the Government have also been misused and funds have been withdrawn for projects that have not been sanctioned by the Town Panchayat.

Yesterday, Revenue Officer Basavaraju and FDA Raghunandan visited the DUDC Office to submit an interim report, as they had been occupied with the vote-counting process for the Lok Sabha elections.

Sources said that the officers were directed to take another two to three days to submit a detailed report on the extent of the misappropriation, along with documentary evidence, to be sent to the Government for disciplinary action.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

The voters of India have once again asserted their collective voice! They have responded categorically to the promises and assurances made by the political players of different political hues. Major political parties and alliances have both positive takeaways as well as important lessons to reflect upon. This election provides enough proof of the earthly political sense of the Indian voter. In the run up to this election, one heard the point being made that this election evoked very little interest as the result was apparently a foregone conclusion. The assumption was that the ruling party was returning to power. The debate was on the intensity of the mandate. Projections of 370 for the ruling party and 400+ for their alliance were made. As each round of polling ended, and the mood of the voter became more apparent, the slogan was put on the back-burner, to be revived again in the end. The Indian voter has brought back the coalition, albeit with more restrained numbers. The voter has also underscored the need for a strong and robust Opposition (we did not have a recognised opposition party in the Lok Sabha for the last decade), through the verdict. A reality check for the ruling party and a boost to the Opposition was conveyed by the Indian electorate.

Finally, the 2024 verdict would require the BJP to work a very different coalition as compared to the one it nominally maintained over the last decade. The BJP's allies in the NDA would not be satisfied with a notional representation, as they had to make do with in the past. While the BJP is adept at political negotiations, one is likely to see a lot of back and forth before any understanding is reached on the formation of the government. Elections are great political levellers. The 2024 elections would be cited as a classic example in this regard. One bows down to the wisdom, foresight and political acumen of Indian voters. They are the true heroes of this election.

Team wins championship after 43-1 victory

Budapest: A kids 'football team won the Under 14 National Championship with a 43-1 victory in their very last match of the season.

With just one match left to play, Kerekegyháza SE and Miklós GYFE were tied at 43 points, but the latter had a comfortable 40-goal advantage, which virtually guaranteed its first-ever U14 football title. But there is a reason why 'virtually' isn't synonymous with 'definitely'.

In their last match, Kerekegyháza SE scored an epic 43-1 victory over Palmonostora, the last team in the rankings, while Miklós GYFE only managed a 1-0 victory in their last match. Miklós GYFE was getting ready to celebrate their title after the comfortable win when they got the unbelievable news that they had actually finished second, behind Kerekegyháza. The 43-1 victory is now being investigated by the Hungarian Football Federation.

Vlogger sentenced to jail for hugging people

Djelfa (Algeria): A man was recently convicted for indecent behaviour and sentenced to two years jail for hugging random people on the street to spread peace and positivity.

Mohamed Ramzi, a 30-something vlogger from Algeria, sparked outrage in his country by posting a video on a social media platform after being inspired by a popular European vlogger who became famous for social experiments like hugging random people on the street. As the footages attracted condemnation from the general public, not even Mohamed's apology could stop the charges against him. Last year, a court found him not guilty on all charges, but his case was referred to the Algerian Judicial Council after prosecutors appealed the decision and this time he was found guilty.

VOICE OF THE READER

Musings on Lok Sabha election-2024 results

Sir,

On Tuesday, June 4, I spent the entire day glued to the TV, listening to endless discussions and chatter about the election results. As the results started coming in, I was shocked. How could all the so-called exit polls be so wrong?

I was led to believe that a lot of work and effort goes into collecting and analysing the data before presenting it. There's also the possibility that our voters have become savvy and deliberately give false information to the pollsters who seek their views after the elections.

One thing was starkly visible after the results were out: 'Brand Modi' was in decline. I don't know how many of you have ever been to Varanasi, but since Modi's arrival, the city has been transformed. The airports, railway stations, roads and ghats have all improved, resulting in the economic upliftment of the city. Varanasi is now an international destination.

Despite all this work, what did Modi get in this LS election-2024? A 60 percent reduction in votes! At one point, PM Modi was even trailing.

What does all this imply? Does good work or development not really matter to people? Instead, do religion, caste and money matter more? The same example can be cited for Smriti Irani in Amethi. She transformed Amethi and still lost.

One of the primary reasons for the loss in UP is the fear instilled by Congress and SP that the new Government, if it got 400 seats, would change the Constitution. They were aided by our own Anantkumar Hegde, who in one of his speeches said that the BJP would change the Constitution if they got 400 seats. Loose and casual talk can cause immense damage.

Only time will tell if Modi has the capacity to handle a coalition. All these years, from Gujarat onwards, he has been a solo player making decisions. Now, every party will demand its pound of flesh and portfolios. How will he balance it?

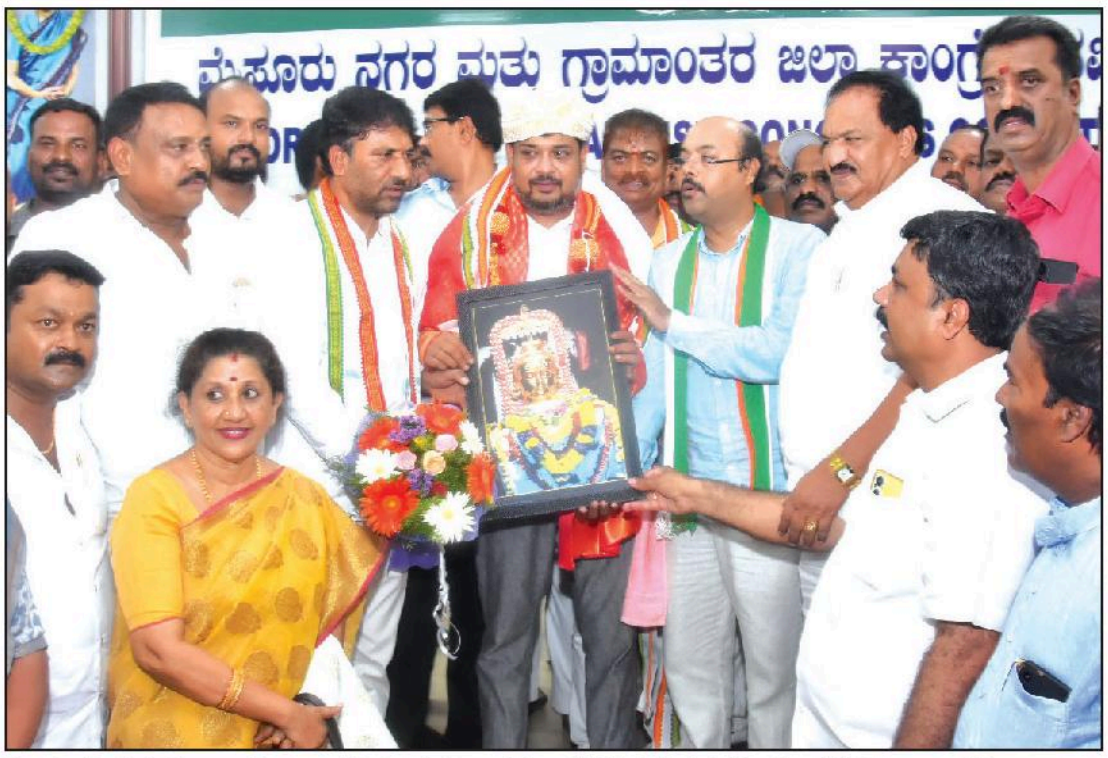
Newly elected Chamarajanagar MP Sunil Bose feted in Mysuru

Modi won't remain in power for long: Dr. Yathindra Siddaramaiah



Newly elected Chamarajanagar MP Sunil Bose being felicitated at Indira Gandhi Congress Bhavan, near City Railway Station in Mysuru on Wednesday. Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) Chairman K. Marigowda, former MLA Dr. Yathindra Siddaramaiah, Mysuru District Rural Congress Committee President Dr. B.J. Vijaykumar, Congress leader Shashikala Nagaraj and others are seen.

Mysuru, June 6 (BLU&BS)- Former MLA Dr. Yathindra Siddaramaiah has said, "Even if National Democratic Alliance (NDA) steered by Narendra Modi (the caretaker Prime Minister), forms the Government at the Centre again, it won't survive for long."

He was speaking during a felicitation for newly elected Chamarajanagar MP Sunil Bose at Indira Gandhi Congress Bhavan, near City Railway Station on Wednesday.

"If NDA-led dispensation falls due to political disagreements, Congress led I.N.D.I Alliance will be forming the Government at the Centre," said Dr. Yathindra.

"BJP has misused Income Tax (IT) Department, Enforcement Directorate (ED) and other Government agencies, with the ulterior motive of diminishing the Opposition parties. The people have taught a befitting lesson in the LS elections, by exercising their mandate against the misrule of Modi-led Government for its unilateral attitude. We also made all efforts to win in Mysuru-Kodagu LS seat, but to no avail," added Dr. Yathindra.

Marithibbegowda, former MLC and Congress candidate for the Legislative Council elections from South Teachers Constituency, said: "BJP failed to win more seats in LS elections, as the people taught a fitting lesson to the party that practices communal politics."

Sunil Bose, who has been elected to the Parliament, without even having been elected as a Gram Panchayat Member, should make judicious use of the opportunity and retain the power for long, by serving the people, he added.

Bose said: "I was able to win the elections for many reasons including the guarantee schemes and the blessings of my immediate predecessor V. Sreenivasa Prasad, who had given a call to the electorate to ensure my victory."

MP Yaduveer Wadiyar to walk on Nalwadi's path

Visits Suttur Mutt and Parakala Mutt, seeks blessings of Seers

Suttur Seer Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji seen blessing the newly elected Mysuru-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar during his visit to the Mutt at the foot of Chamundi Hill yesterday. Junior Pontiff Jayarajendra Swamiji, JSS Mahavidyapeetha Executive Secretary Dr. C.G. Betsurmath, BJP Mysuru Rural President L.R. Mahadevaswamy, former MLA C.S. Niranjan Kumar, former Chairman of Kannada Book Authority Nandeesh Hanche, Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Kalisu Foundation M.M. Nikhilesh, City BJP General Secretary Cable Mahesh and others are seen.

Mysuru, June 6 (PM&BS)- Newly elected Mysuru-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar has said he will be following the footsteps of his celebrated ancestor Rajarshi Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, the 24th ruler of erstwhile Mysore kingdom. Yaduveer was speaking to media persons during his visit to Suttur Mutt branch at the foot of Chamundi Hill in city on Wednesday, to seek the blessings of Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji.

Yaduveer, who credited his victory in the Lok Sabha polls to the party leaders and workers, said there were 10 points that catapulted me to the league of winners. The voters have responded to the best administration of Prime Minister Narendra Modi along with the pro-people programmes of Maharajas of Mysore, along with the party organisation and BJP and JD(S) coalition at ground level that did wonders, added Yaduveer.

Reacting to a question on emerging victorious on the day of birth anniversary of his great grandfather Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar, Yaduveer said "It was all due to the blessings of Goddess Chamundeshwari and Nalwadi that the counting of votes of LS polls was scheduled on Nalwadi's Jayanti and I was able to win by a huge margin. Nalwadi has enormously contributed and shall work by the ideologies propagated by the late Maharaja."

Answering to a question on BJP getting less seats belying the expectations both in the State and the country, Yaduveer said "We still have to analyse the pros and cons, but still I am confident of forming the Government at the Centre and Narendra Modi becoming the Prime Minister of the country again."

On his next visit to Delhi, Yaduveer said "I am going to Delhi today on the invitation of the party."

When asked about the removal of the gate installed by his family on Devikere main road atop the Chamundi Hill, Yaduveer said "We only shall take appropriate action in this regard within the ambit of law. As a MP, there is no scope for wielding the influence in this matter."

Former MLA C.S. Niranjan Kumar, former Chairman of Kannada Book Authority Nandeesh Hanche, BJP Mysuru Rural President L.R. Mahadevaswamy, City General Secretary Cable Mahesh and others were present.

Newly elected Mysuru-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar visited Parakala Mutt in city yesterday and sought the blessings of Srimad Abhinava Vageesha Brahmatantra Swatantra Parakala Swamiji, who is the Rajaguru of the Mysore Royal Family.

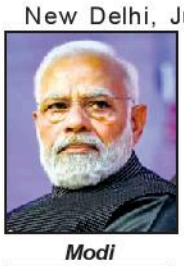
Bangladesh, Sri Lankan leaders to attend Modi's swearing-in

Invitations sent to leaders of Nepal, Bhutan and Mauritius



Modi

New Delhi, June 6 (Agencies)- Narendra Modi is set to take oath as the Prime Minister for the third consecutive time on Sunday after his allies chose him as their leader at a key meeting in Delhi yesterday.

Top South Asian leaders have been invited to the oath ceremony, reflecting the government's 'Neighbourhood First' policy. Bangladesh and Sri Lankan leaders have already confirmed their presence at Sunday's (June 9) event at 6 pm after speaking to PM Modi over the phone.

The media division of Sri Lankan President Ranil Wickremesinghe's Office said he has accepted the invitation to attend Sunday's event and also congratulated PM Modi for his electoral victory.

Sheikh Hasina, the Prime Minister of Bangladesh, was among the first foreign leaders to congratulate PM Modi, reflecting the warmth and personal rapport between the two leaders. She will arrive in Delhi, a day before the event, according to Bangladesh media.

Formal invitations have also been sent to Nepal Prime Minister Pushpa Kamal Dahal 'Prachanda', his Bhutan counterpart Tshering Tobgay and Mauritius PM Pravind Jugnauth, reports suggest.

In 2014, the leaders of the SAARC (South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation) countries attended PM Modi's swearing-in ceremony and in 2019, the leaders of the BIMSTEC (Bay of Bengal Initiative for Multi-Sectoral Technical and Economic Cooperation) countries attended his oath ceremony.

LOOKING BACK...

The Culinary Art of Dinner Diplomacy

Breaking Bread together" is a phrase that from ancient times has been a symbol of amity and fellowship. In 1959, when I became an Indian Foreign Service wife at the age of twenty-one, I realised that hospitality, both proffered and enjoyed, would be a large part of my diplomatic life. Being sentimental, I saved some Invitation Cards we received as mementoes; also, as a record of our own diplomatic journey through the years and a reflection of changing attitudes to food and entertaining.

I picked some invitations for their aesthetic or evocative memories; including the very first one that my husband, A. Madhavan, and I received at the start of our career in Burma, now Myanmar.

Our London posting is marked by an invitation from the British Chancellor to foreign diplomats accredited to Britain, to a garden party at Buckingham Palace. It brings back memories of white marquees on emerald lawns, strawberry delights and meeting actor Vyjayanthimala there.

President Giscard d'Estaing and Mme d'Estaing visited India in 1980 during the regime of the late Prime Minister Indira Gandhi and President Sanjiva Reddy hosted a Banquet at Rashtrapati Bhavan for the occasion. The menu lists "Stuffed Rohu" followed by "Mutton Hyderabadi Biriyani, Chicken Anarkali and Seekh Kabab" with suitable accompaniments and Indian sweets for dessert.

When the late Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi and Mrs. Sonia Gandhi visited Tokyo in 1985, Japan's Prime Minister and Mrs. Nakasone hosted a dinner for them, the invitation cards reflecting the elegance of the event. The menu, written in French, started with "Consommé [soup], Steamed Fish, Rack of Lamb with Thyme" and a chocolate based sweet. French wines enhanced the meal.

During their visit to Germany in June 1988, the Gandhis were guests at a banquet given by Minister President Franz Josef Strauss in Munich, Bavaria. Specially chosen German wines complemented the flavours of Herb Soup, Asparagus, Breast of Duckling and accompaniments, Fruit with Lemon Parfait. That Menu Card is the star of my collection.

The dinner was held in the "Antiquarium of the Residenz" in Munich. Built by Duke Albrecht during the years 1568-71, the great hall displays the Duke's collection of antique sculptures in embrasures along the wall. The long dining table was decorated with candles and flowers, blooms of White and Blue, the colours of Bavaria, alternating with those of the Indian Tricolour. At the far end music, was played on antique Bavarian musical instruments by the Munich Rococo Soloists, a rare treat for a Mysorean like me.

Years ago, as a new entrant to culinary diplomacy, I was advised by a retired, elderly diplomat how to present Indian culture in Food. He said, "Give them Pukka Khana"; he meant rich meat curries, rice dishes, chicken and fish; desserts redolent with ghee and saffron. "No Ghaas Phoos" [greens] he added with an admonitory wag of his finger. But now we proudly present our vegetarian dishes to our guests. My friend, Ghizala Jung from Hyderabad generously shared with me her special recipe for "Bagara Baingan", an aubergine dish, which became a "hot" favourite with our German guests.

Vegetarian Banquet for Prime Minister Modi in UAE.

The spectrum of change was completed in June 2023, when a vegetarian dinner at the White House for Prime Minister Modi was specially created by Chef Nina Curtis and Mrs. Biden. It featured "Crisped Millet Cakes, Stuffed Portobello Mushrooms, Saffron Risotto" with elaborate side dishes to enhance the entrée, ending with "Cardamom flavoured Strawberry Shortcake".

Later on, at the UAE President's State Banquet for Prime Minister Modi, a vegetarian meal was served; an innovative departure from the famed meat based Arab delicacies. Starting with Grilled Vegetables, the main course was Harees [a wheat-based dish], accompanied by Black Lentils and Tandoori Vegetables. Fresh fruit concluded the meal.

Formal diplomatic gatherings generally finish fairly early. These dinners that I attended were like snatches from the Cinderella story; glimpses of royalty and celebrities, the gorgeous interiors of Japan, Rashtrapati Bhavan or the Munich Antiquarium. And, at the striking of the appointed hour, back to everyday life. But those wonderful memories continue to occupy a niche in the mind to revisit later.

Nine Bengaluru trekkers die

Revenue Minister Krishna Byre Gowda in Uttarakhand to monitor rescue operation

The other trekkers, Bharat Bommanagoudar, Soumya Kanale, B.S. Jayaprakash, S. Shiva Jyothi, Sheena Lakshmi, Madhu Kiran Reddy, Smruti Dolas and Anil Jammatige Arunachala Bhatta, were rescued yesterday and shifted to Dehradun.

The trekkers were stranded, and nine of them met their tragic end before the rescue party could reach them due to extreme weather conditions, which made it impossible for the trekkers to reach the base camp.

Karnataka Revenue Minister Krishna Byre Gowda, who flew to Uttarakhand to monitor the rescue operations, met with the Chief Secretary of Uttarakhand Radha Raturi and Secretary of Disaster Management Dr. Ranjit Kumar Sinha to assess the situation. He said, "Nine trekkers had died even before the rescue team could reach them. All surviving trekkers have been rescued and their condition is stable. I have personally met them."

After completing the process of embalming the bodies in Dehradun and conducting postmortems in Uttarkashi this morning, arrangements have been made to transport their bodies back to Bengaluru by a chartered flight, he added.

According to a statement by the Karnataka Revenue Department, ten officials from the Forest Department, two Revenue Inspectors, two Home Guards, and a few local villagers were deployed on Wednesday morning. They were later joined by six State Disaster Response Force (SDRF) soldiers.

MLC polls: Counting underway

Similarly, NDA candidate S.L. Bhojegowda was ahead of his nearest rival Dr. K.K. Manjunath Kumar of Congress by a considerable margin in the South-West Teachers Constituency, after the first round of counting.

There are as many as 11 candidates in the fray for the South Teachers Constituency. However, the Constituency witnessed a direct fight between Marithibegowda and K. Vivekananda.

Nine other candidates in the fray are — Vatal Nagaraj of Kannada Chaluvali Vatal Paksha, Nagendra Babu of Karnataka Janata Party (KJP) and Anil Kumar, Ambarish, Nagamallesh, S. Ningaraju, K.C. Puttasiddashetty (former MLC), R. Mahesh and K. Raju, all independents.

Constituency, which went to the polls on June 3, had recorded a high poll percentage of 88.07.

The South Teachers Constituency comprises the districts of Mysuru, Mandya, Hassan and Chamarajanagar, while the South-West Graduates and South-West Teachers Constituencies encompass the districts of Kodagu, Chikkamagalur, Shivamogga, Daskhina Kannada and Udupi and parts of Davangere.

The strong rooms at Maharani's Science College, where the ballot boxes of the three Constituencies were kept, were opened under the supervision of Regional Commissioner Dr. G.C. Prakash, who is also the Returning Officer for all the three Constituencies, Counting Observer Dr. J. Ravishankar and other top officials of the District Administration. Later, all the ballot papers were bundled, with 25 ballot papers in each bundle, after leaving out the invalid votes. Subsequently, the counting of votes was taken up in 14 tables at around 12 noon.

Police have provided tight security around the counting centre, besides clamping prohibitory orders in city limits from 6 am today till 5 am tomorrow.

Counting of votes was on when we went to the press and the results will be known only late night today or early morning tomorrow as the counting of votes in accordance with the preferential votes takes a long time.

Dy. Commissioner Dr. K.V. Rajendra visited the counting centre and supervised the process.

There are 8 candidates in fray for South-West Teachers Constituency — Dr. K.K. Manjunath Kumar of Congress, S.L. Bhojegowda of NDA and Dr. Arun Hosakoppa, Dr. Nareshchandra Hegde, Nanjesh Bennur, T. Bhaskar Shetty, K.K. Manjunath Kumar and Dr.S.R. Harish Acharya, all independents.

Mohammad Tumbe, K. Raghupathi Bhat, Dr. Sheikh Bava, G.R. Shadaksharappa and Mujahid Siddiqui, all independents.

Davangere Varsity VC laments neglect of aged parents

Mysuru, June 6 (BLU&DM)- Davangere University Vice-Chancellor Prof. B.D. Kumbara has lamented that the present generation is hesitant to take care of aged parents and are leaving them at old age homes.

He was speaking after inaugurating Basava Jayanti celebrations organised by KSOU at Cauvery auditorium in Mukthagangothri campus here recently.

Wondering how they would benefit if people admit their aged parents to old age homes and worship idols of deities, Prof. Kumbara observed that those who do not have respect for their parents, must read the Vachanas of Basavanna and other Sharanas in order to understand how we should live for the cause of the society.

"Basavanna had fought against inequality in the 12th century itself. Basavanna, a great social reformer that he was, brought about a revolution in the society. The Vachanas of Basavanna and other Saints have brought about revolutionary changes in building an equal society," he said.

Asserting that the Vachanas are highly influential in bringing about changes in the society, Prof. Kumbara said the Vachanas brought out the truth at a time when superstitions ruled the roost in the society. This helped the Movements to get a renewed life for building an equal society, he said while stressing on the need for the present and future generations to take forward Basavanna's legacy by propagating his Vachanas. Understanding of Sharana values will help younger generation in leading a valued and purposeful life, he added.

KSOU VC Prof. Sharanappa V. Halse, Registrar K.B. Praveen, Registrar (Evaluation) Dr. H. Vishwanath, Academic Dean Prof. Lakshmi, KSOU Study Centre Dean Prof. Ramanatham, Prog. Organiser Dr. N.R. Chandregowda and others were present.

Blessings of gurus vital for students' bliss: Folklorist

Mysuru, June 6 (MTY&DM)- Noted folk singer Malavalli Mahadevaswamy said that the blessings of Gurus (teachers) is a bliss for the life of students.

He was speaking at the valedictory of extracurricular activities of the current academic year of Maharani's Arts College for Women at Nalwadi Krishnaraja Wadiyar auditorium in the college campus here recently.

"Parents take great pains for higher education of their wards. The students should always keep in mind the pains of their parents in nurturing them. The students should study hard and make efforts to fulfil the dreams of their parents," Mahadevaswamy said.

Pointing out that, it is good if the educated youths get employment after completion of education. If not, they should look at self-employment, he added.

"There are ample opportunities in Arts too and one can lead a life out of it. I myself is a perfect example of this. I learnt folklore as a means of livelihood. Now this is leading my life," he noted.

"Miracle saints like Lord Mahadeshwara, Manteswamy, Yediyur Siddalingeshwara etc., spent their entire life walking to villages and towns carrying a 'Jolige' (a long cloth bag) to seek alms and for educating the people on the values and virtues of life. In modern times, personalities such as Mahatma Gandhiji, Jawaharlal Nehru, Dr. B.R. Ambedkar etc., involved themselves in freedom struggle and dedicated their life for the cause of equality. But now, people have become so selfish that they think they should only live, with little space for all others," he lamented.

Malavalli Mahadevaswamy

Principal Prof. B.V. Vasanthkumar presided.

Actor Kadur Dharmanna, college Samskrutika Vedike Secretary (faculty) M. Nanjundaiah, Treasurer Ashwini and others were present.

WORD OF THE DAY

Affluent

Pronunciation: AF-loo-unt (Adjective)
Meaning: Someone described as affluent has a large amount of money and owns many expensive things. Something, such as a place or institution, described as affluent is similarly rich or wealthy.
Origin: Visualise with us: coffers overflowing, a cash flow more than adequate, assets that are fluid, an elderly duck in a top hat diving into a pool of gold coins. The images conjured reflect the essence of the word affluent. Based on the Latin verb fluere, meaning "to flow," affluent is all about flow. (The same image is echoed in other fluere descendants, such as confluence, fluctuate, fluid, influence, mellifluous, and superfluous.) The flowing of goods or riches wasn't the word's first concern, however; 16th century print examples of affluent tend to be about the abundance of such intangibles as "goodness" and "spirit." In the 17th century, the flow suggested by affluent varied greatly: streams, poisons, estates, and blood were all described with the word. In modern use, affluent most often describes wealthy people (or ducks), or places where wealthy people live.
Example: "Princeton packs many charms into its 18.4 square miles. Halfway between New York and Philadelphia, it has long attracted affluent professionals, many enduring commutes of more than an hour in return for roomy, historic houses, old-growth trees that burst into flower in spring & cultural riches of Princeton University."—Julie Lasky, The New York Times, 21 Apr. 2021

THE ODD WORD

Quadrupedation

Stamping with four feet.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Cup of Joe

Meaning: This is an American expression meaning a cup of coffee.
Example: This place has the best tasting coffee in town; I'll definitely be ordering all of my cups of joe from this spot in the future!
Origin: After waking up in the morning, millions of people choose to drink a hot (or cold) cup of coffee. Why, though, is this drink referred to as 'a cup of joe'? Indeed, how did coffee get this nickname?
Well, the origin of this phrase is uncertain. However, there are a few theories. One of them is as follows: Josephus Daniels, who was Secretary of the Navy, banned U.S. Navy ships from serving alcoholic beverages in the year 1914. This ban led to sailors consuming more coffee (among other drinks). Since Josephus Daniels was responsible for the ban and thus perhaps being partly blamed for the growing intake of coffee, they (the sailors) nicknamed the drink after him, thus it became 'a cup of joe,' Joe being short for Josephus. A more plausible sounding theory is mentioned at Snopes, where it's explained that the word "joe" can simply mean 'an ordinary man.' For example, perhaps you've heard the term 'an average joe.'

QUOTE BOX

The future is not an inheritance; it is an opportunity and an obligation.
